Fast! Hot Honey-Glazed Barramundi

with Peach & Tomato Salad

ca. 20min

2 Servings

Fish with salad is one of the healthiest dinner choices, but there's no excuse for blandness. Sweet and spicy hot honey elevates this meal to new heights. Fresh peaches cook along with meaty barramundi filets, which has a crisp skin that balances the juicy fruit. A lemony basil vinaigrette dresses the peppery arugula salad, along with fresh tomatoes, peaches, and shaved Parmesan.

1. Prep ingredients

Into a large bowl, zest and juice half of the lemon. Whisk in pesto and 1 tablespoon oil. Set aside until step 5.

Halve peach and discard pit. Cut tomato into ¾-inch thick wedges. Using a vegetable peeler or knife, shave Parmesan. Pat barramundi dry, then season all over with salt and pepper.

4. Assemble & serve

Add arugula to bowl with basil vinaigrette; toss and season to taste with salt and pepper. Cut peaches into wedges. Season tomatoes with salt and pepper.

Serve arugula with fish, peaches, tomatoes, and Parmesan over top. Cut remaining lemon into wedges and serve alongside. Enjoy!

2. Cook fish

Preheat broiler with a rack in the upper third.

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a medium nonstick ovenproof skillet over medium-high. Add fish, skin-side down; firmly press down with back of a spatula, 10 seconds. Cook until skin is golden brown, 3-4 minutes.

Meanwhile, season peaches with salt and pepper.

3. Broil fish & peaches

Remove skillet from heat and add peaches, cut-side up. Brush tops of barramundi and peaches with hot honey.

Broil on upper oven rack until fish is cooked through and lightly browned and peaches are softened and browned in spots, 3-5 minutes. Flip fish; broil until skin is puffed and crisped, 30-60 seconds (watch closely as broilers vary).
