Soy-Glazed Salmon

with Peanut Chili Crisp & Sweet Pepper Rice

30-40min

2 Servings

The crunchy, spicy, flavor-packed condiment known as chili crisp has taken the world by storm—and it couldn't be easier. Peanuts, sesame seeds, gochugaru flakes, scallions and garlic sizzle in hot oil to perfectly complement kecap manis-glazed salmon and jasmine rice that we cook with sweet bell peppers. Flavor and texture abound in this modern classic with an Asian twist.

1. Cook rice

Halve pepper, discard stem and seeds, and coarsely chop.

In a small saucepan, combine rice, chopped peppers, 1¼ cups water, and ½ teaspoon salt. Bring to a boil over high heat, then cover and cook over low until rice is tender and water is absorbed, about 17 minutes. Keep covered until ready to serve.

4. Make peanut chili crisp

Heat ¼ cup oil in a medium heavy skillet (preferably cast-iron) over medium-high until shimmering.

To bowl with lime juice, add scallion light greens, peanuts, grated garlic, sesame seeds, gochugaru flakes (use less if desired), and ½ teaspoon sugar. Pour hot oil over top; stir to combine and set aside for serving. Return skillet to stove.

2. Marinate salmon

Transfer salmon to a medium bowl. Drizzle with half of the kecap manis sauce and season with a pinch each of salt and pepper; turn to coat in sauce. Set aside to marinate.

5. SALMON VARIATION

Heat same skillet over medium-high. Add salmon and cook until lightly charred and medium, 3-4 minutes per side (or longer for desired doneness). During the last 2-3 minutes of cooking, brush salmon with remaining kecap manis sauce, flipping once or twice, until caramelized and sticky. Set aside to rest.

3. Prep ingredients

Finely grate 2 teaspoons garlic. Trim scallions and slice very thin, keeping light and dark greens separate. Coarsely chop peanuts. Squeeze 1 tablespoon lime juice into a medium heatproof bowl; cut any remaining lime into wedges.

6. Finish & serve

Season peanut chili mixture to taste with salt and pepper.

Serve salmon alongside red pepper crispy rice, with peanut chili crisp spooned over top. Garnish with scallion dark greens and serve with any lime wedges for squeezing over top. Enjoy!
