No Chop! Harissa Salmon with Tzatziki & Spinach-Couscous Salad

ca. 20min

2 Servings

This restaurant quality dinner comes together in just three steps! Harissa spice brings a ton of flavor to seared salmon fillets served with crushed almonds and creamy tzatziki. While the salmon cooks, couscous is ready in the snap thanks to a quick zap in the microwave. We use one of our favorite tricks by stirring spinach into the warm couscous, letting the heat wilt the delicate greens. We've got you covered!

WHAT WE SEND

- 8 oz pkg salmon filets ¹
- ¼ oz harissa spice blend
- 3 oz couscous ²
- 5 oz baby spinach

1. Cook fish

Pat fish dry; season all over with salt, pepper, and all of the harissa spice.

Heat 2 tablespoons oil in a medium nonstick skillet over medium-high. Add fish, skin-side down. Firmly press for 10 seconds with a spatula. Cook, gently pressing, until skin is crisp and fish is nearly cooked, 4–5 minutes. Flip and cook until just done, 1 minute. Reserve oil in skillet.

2. Cook couscous

Meanwhile, in a microwave-safe medium bowl, combine couscous and ⅔ cup water; cover and microwave until water is absorbed and couscous is tender, about 2 minutes. Stir in spinach and 2 teaspoons vinegar. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

3. Finish & serve

Using a rolling pin or heavy skillet, crush almonds in packet.

Serve salmon over couscous salad with tzatziki, almonds, and reserved harissa oil over top. Enjoy!
