

Pan-Roasted Tilapia

with Potatoes & Herb Butter

30-40min

2 Servings

Herb butter sounds like something you'd only find in fancy restaurants, but the truth is that it's easy and quick to make. The trick is to allow the butter to soften at room temperature so it can be easily mashed with fresh herbs and chopped onions. We spooned our fragrant herb butter onto tender tilapia for a special finish that's also delicious on the pan-roasted potatoes served alongside.

1. Prep ingredients

Preheat oven to 425°F with a rack in the center. Scrub potatoes, then halve. Halve and thinly slice ¾ cup onion (save rest for own use); finely chop 1 tablespoon of the onions, leaving the rest sliced. Finely grate all of the lemon zest, then cut half of the lemon into 4 wedges (save rest for own use).

2. Sauté vegetables

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a large ovenproof skillet over medium-high. Add potatoes and cook, stirring occasionally, until lightly browned but not cooked through, about 7 minutes (reduce heat if browning too quickly). Stir in sliced onions and season with salt and pepper.

3. Pan-roast vegetables

Transfer skillet to center oven rack and roast until potatoes are tender, 10-12 minutes. Carefully remove from oven and stir in spinach to wilt slightly.

4. Roast fish

Pat tilapia dry and brush lightly with oil; season all over with salt and pepper. Place tilapia on top of vegetables and roast on center oven rack until fish is just cooked through, 8-10 minutes.

5. Make herb butter

Pick and coarsely chop 1 tablespoon dill fronds; discard stems. In a small bowl, combine chopped dill, chopped onions, 1 tablespoon softened butter, ½ teaspoon of the lemon zest (reserve remaining for serving), and a pinch each of salt and pepper. Squeeze 1 lemon wedge into bowl, and mash with a fork to combine.

6. Finish & serve

Use a spatula to transfer vegetables and tilapia to plates (careful, the skillet is hot!). Dot herb butter on top of fish and sprinkle with some of the reserved lemon zest. Serve tilapia and veggies with remaining lemon wedges on the side for squeezing over. Enjoy!
