1. Prep equipment

Preheat oven to 450°F with a rimmed baking sheet on a rack in the center.

Cut 2 pieces of parchment into 12x18-inch rectangles; lightly grease one side with oil.

Place 2 tablespoons butter in a small bowl; set aside to soften.

2. Prep potatoes & spinach

Scrub potatoes, then halve lengthwise. Toss in a large microwave-safe bowl with 2 teaspoons oil and a pinch each of salt and pepper. Microwave on high until slightly softened, 3–4 minutes.

Add spinach to bowl and microwave until slightly wilted, 1 minute more.

3. Prep ingredients & butter

Meanwhile, coarsely chop tomato. Finely chop 1 teaspoon each of garlic and thyme. Pat fish dry and season all over with salt and pepper.

To bowl with softened butter, zest ½ teaspoon lemon; cut lemon into wedges. Add chopped garlic, thyme, and a pinch each of salt and pepper; mash with a fork until combined.

4. Build packets

When cool enough to handle, divide potatoes and spinach between parchment pieces. Divide tomatoes between parchment pieces; drizzle with oil and season with salt and pepper. Top each pile with 1 filet. Gently spread seasoned butter over fish. Fold parchment over top and pinch edges all around to seal.

5. Bake & serve

Place packets on preheated baking sheet; roast on center oven rack until fish is just cooked through and potatoes are tender, about 15 minutes. Let sit 5 minutes, then carefully open packets and spoon any juices over fish.

Serve cod en papillote garnished with a sprig of thyme, if desired, and with lemon wedges. Enjoy!
