Just a few small tweaks help bring this Italian restaurant classic into the home kitchen—and make it weeknight friendly, too! ### 1. Prep ingredients

Preheat oven to 425°F with racks in the upper and lower thirds. Peel 4 large garlic cloves; lightly smash 3, then halve the 4th. Trim ends from broccoli, then cut broccoli lengthwise into long spears with 1-inch florets attached. Slice peppadews into thick rounds. In a measuring cup, stir to combine all of the broth concentrate, 2/3 cup water, and 1 tablespoon vinegar.

2. Prep rolls

Halve and cut rolls crosswise into 1-inch thick slices. Transfer to a rimmed baking sheet or piece of foil, and drizzle with oil.

3. Roast broccoli

On a second rimmed baking sheet, toss broccoli with 1 tablespoon oil, and season with salt and pepper. Roast on lower oven rack until browned and tender, about 15 minutes (watch closely, as ovens vary).

4. Toast rolls

Meanwhile, toast sliced rolls on upper oven rack until lightly browned and crisp, turning once, about 8 minutes (watch closely, as ovens vary). Rub one side of each slice with reserved halved garlic clove and sprinkle with salt.

5. Brown chicken

Pat chicken dry. Season with salt and pepper; dust with flour, pressing to adhere. Heat 2 tablespoons oil in a medium skillet over medium. Add chicken; cook until browned and cooked through, 3 minutes per side. Add whole rosemary sprigs and smashed garlic cloves; cook until fragrant, about 2 minutes. Transfer chicken to a plate; leave garlic and rosemary in skillet.

6. Finish & serve

Add broth mixture to skillet. Cook over high heat, scraping up browned bits, until slightly reduced, 1-2 minutes. Add 1/2 tablespoon butter, swirling to combine. Add chicken and any juices to skillet. Add peppers, reduce heat to low, and cook, turning chicken to coat in sauce, 2-3 minutes. Serve with broccoli and garlic toasts with pan sauce spooned over top. Enjoy!
