Whether it's meatless Monday or meatless every day in your home, we found a way to create the perfect quesadillas in a flash. We combine plant-based ground with corn and taco seasoning, then stuff the mixture into flour tortillas with shredded cheese. 1. Prep & broil ingredients

Preheat broiler with a rack in the top position. Halve tomato lengthwise. Squeeze all of the lime juice into a small bowl. Add tomatoes (cut side up), whole jalapeño, and 1 large unpeeled garlic clove to a rimmed baking sheet. Drizzle tomatoes with oil. Broil on top rack until charred in spots, 5-10 minutes (watch closely). Remove from oven, cool until step 4.

4. Assemble quesadillas

Brush one side of each tortilla generously with oil. Lay tortillas on baking sheet, oiled side down. Spoon plant-based ground and corn mixture onto 1 half of each tortilla, then top with cheddar-jack cheese. Fold to close.

2. Brown plant-based ground

Meanwhile, heat 1 tablespoon oil in a medium nonstick skillet over medium-high. Crumble plant-based ground in large pieces into skillet. Add taco seasoning and 3 tablespoons water. Cook, stirring occasionally, until water is mostly evaporated and plant-based ground is browned, about 4 minutes. Remove from heat, stir in corn and 6 tablespoons water.

5. Broil quesadillas

Broil quesadillas on top rack until cheese is melted and quesadillas are golden brown, rotating baking sheet and carefully flipping quesadillas halfway through, 1-2 minutes per side (watch closely). Let stand for 5 minutes, then cut into wedges, if desired. Serve quesadillas with guacamole and salsa alongside.

3. Make salsa

Coarsely chop broiled tomatoes. Peel and finely chop broiled garlic clove. Thinly slice jalapeño (or less, depending on heat preference). To bowl with lime juice, add tomatoes, jalapeños, garlic, and 2 tablespoons oil; toss to combine. Season to taste with salt.

6. Serve

Enjoy!
