1. Cook fries

Preheat oven to 450°F with a rimmed baking sheet on a rack in the upper third.

Scrub potatoes; cut lengthwise into ¼-inch thick fries. Toss in a large bowl with 1 tablespoon flour and 2 teaspoons oil; season with salt and pepper. Carefully transfer to preheated baking sheet and spread into a single layer. Roast on upper oven rack until tender and browned, 16–20 minutes.

2. Prep burgers & onions

Reduce oven to 200°F; keep fries warm until ready to serve.

Divide plant-based ground into 2 equal portions (do not form patties); season all over with salt.

Halve and thinly slice onion.

3. Caramelize onions

Heat 2 tablespoons oil in a medium heavy skillet over medium-high. Add onions; cook, stirring occasionally, until starting to soften, 5–7 minutes. Reduce heat to medium; add ¼ cup water, 1 tablespoon vinegar, and ½ teaspoon sugar. Continue cooking until deeply browned and jammy, about 5 minutes more; transfer to a bowl.

4. Deglaze pan & toast buns

To same skillet, add 2 tablespoons water; scrape up any browned bits from the bottom. Pour mixture over bowl with onions. Wipe out skillet.

Heat 2 teaspoons oil in same skillet over medium-high. Split buns and place in skillet, cut side-down; toast until lightly browned, 1–2 minutes. Transfer to a plate.

5. Cook burgers & serve

Heat ½ tablespoon oil in same skillet. Add burgers and smash each mound flat with a spatula, forming 2 (5-inch) patties. Cook, undisturbed, until edges are browned and burgers are medium-rare, 2–3 minutes per side (or longer for desired doneness).

Serve burgers on buns with caramelized onions and blue cheese. Serve fries alongside with ketchup, if desired. Enjoy!

6. Add condiments!

Go crazy with more burger toppings like garlic mayo, sliced tomato, lettuce, and whatever your heart desires.
