1. Brown butter

Preheat oven to 350°F with a rack in the center.

Heat 8 tablespoons butter over medium in a small saucepan. Cook, stirring occasionally, until amber-colored and nutty in aroma, 5–7 minutes. Transfer to a large bowl to cool slightly.

2. Toast nuts

Meanwhile, grease an 8x8-inch baking dish and line with parchment paper with a 2-inch overhang on 2 sides (this will make the blondies easier to pull out of the baking dish).

Transfer walnuts to a rimmed baking sheet in an even layer. Bake until golden brown and fragrant, 5–7 minutes. Let cool slightly and then coarsely chop.

3. Mix batter

To bowl with browned butter, add brown sugar, ⅓ cup of the granulated sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla, and ½ teaspoon salt. Whisk to combine. Stir in 1 egg and ½ cup of the pumpkin purée. Add flour, 1 teaspoon warm spice blend, and ½ teaspoon of baking powder. Mix to combine.

4. Bake blondies

Reserve 1 tablespoon each of chocolate chips and walnuts for topping. To bowl with batter, fold in remaining chocolate and nuts.

Transfer batter to prepared baking dish and spread into an even layer. Sprinkle reserved chocolate chips and nuts on top. Transfer to center oven rack and bake until a toothpick comes out clean and edges begin to brown, 23–27 minutes.

5. Serve

Let blondies cool completely. Remove from baking dish and cut into squares for serving. Enjoy!
