

Chocolate Chip Blondies

with Tahini-Maple Glaze

40-50min

2 Servings

Tahini and maple might not be your go-to ingredients when baking, but hear us out. These blondies are full of chocolate chips and drizzled with tahini-maple glaze. It works because of the rich, nutty flavor from the tahini and the sweetness of the maple. Together it creates a decadent glaze that is easy to make and even easier to eat.

1. Melt butter

Preheat oven to 350°F with a rack in the center.

Melt 8 tablespoons unsalted butter in a medium microwave-safe bowl. (Alternately, melt butter in a small pot over medium-low heat). Set aside to cool for 2 minutes.

2. Prep baking dish

Butter the bottom and sides of an 8-inch square baking dish.

3. Prep batter

In a medium bowl, whisk to combine melted butter, 1 large egg, 1 packed cup brown sugar, and ¼ teaspoon salt until mixture is thick and smooth, about 1 minute.

4. Finish batter

Add self rising flour and chocolate chips to bowl. Stir until ingredients are just combined and there are no visible traces of flour.

5. Bake blondies

Transfer batter to prepared baking dish and spread into an even layer. Sprinkle sesame seeds over top.

Bake on center oven rack until blondies look set, top is shiny and deeply golden, and edges pull away from dish, 25–30 minutes (careful not to over bake).

Let blondies cool completely, at least 1 hour, before moving onto the next step.

6. Make glaze & serve

In a small bowl, whisk to combine ½ cup confectioners' sugar, 1 tablespoon maple syrup, and 2 teaspoons tahini; add ½ teaspoon water at a time until smooth and thin enough to drop from whisk in thick ribbons.

Drizzle glaze over cooled blondies. Let blondies sit for 15–20 minutes, allowing glaze to set, then cut into 16 squares. Enjoy!
