

Fast! Spanakopita Gnocchi

with Crumbled Feta

ca. 20min

2 Servings

We channel all of the rich flavors of crisp Greek spanakopita into a creamy potato gnocchi dish. Baby spinach, garlic, scallions, fresh dill, and cream cheese make up a silky sauce that coats pillowy gnocchi. We cut the richness with briny feta and lemon zest for a fresh take. And the best part? It's ready in under 20 minutes!

1. Prep ingredients

Bring a medium saucepan of salted water to a boil. Finely chop 1 teaspoon garlic. Finely grate 1 teaspoon lemon zest, then cut lemon into wedges. Trim scallions, then thinly slice about ¼ cup. Finely chop dill fronds and tender stems.

4. Wilt spinach

Add spinach to skillet with aromatics. Season with salt and pepper. Cover and cook until spinach is just wilted, 1-2 minutes.

2. Cook gnocchi

Add gnocchi to boiling water. Cook, stirring occasionally, until al dente and most of the gnocchi float to the top, 3-4 minutes. Reserve ¼ cup cooking water, then drain.

5. Build sauce

Add all of the cream cheese, lemon zest, ¾ cup water, and all but 1 tablespoon of the dill to skillet with spinach. Cook, stirring, until sauce is smooth and starting to bubble, 1-2 minutes. Crumble half of the feta into skillet, then stir to combine.

3. Sauté aromatics

Meanwhile, heat a drizzle of oil in a medium skillet over medium. Add garlic and scallions and cook, stirring, until fragrant, about 1 minute.

6. Finish & serve

Add gnocchi and reserved cooking water to skillet with sauce. Cook, stirring, until gnocchi is warm and sauce is the thickness of heavy cream, about 4 minutes (sauce may seem thin, but it will thicken as it cools). Season to taste with salt and pepper. Serve gnocchi with remaining dill and feta on top with lemon wedges on the side for squeezing over. Enjoy!
