1. Prep ingredients

Scrub sweet potatoes, then cut into 1-inch pieces. Peel and finely chop all of the ginger. Coarsely chop onion.

2. Brown sweet potatoes

Heat 2 tablespoons oil in a medium Dutch oven or pot over medium-high. Add sweet potatoes and a pinch of salt; cook, stirring once or twice, until they begin to brown, 4-5 minutes.

3. Add aromatics

Add all but 2 tablespoons of the chopped onions to pot with sweet potatoes (save rest for step 6). Cook, stirring occasionally, until softened, 2-3 minutes. Add chopped ginger, all of the cumin, 2 tablespoons tomato paste, and ½ teaspoon warm spice blend. Cook, stirring, until tomato paste starts to caramelize, 1-2 minutes.

4. Simmer stew

Add all of the peanut butter, 2 cups water, and 1 teaspoon salt. Cook, stirring to incorporate peanut butter; bring to a simmer, then cover. Reduce heat to medium-low and simmer, stirring often to prevent sticking, until sweet potatoes are just tender but not falling apart, 10-15 minutes.

5. Add collard greens

While stew simmers, remove and discard stems from half of the collard greens and coarsely chop leaves (save rest for own use). Once sweet potatoes are tender, stir in collard greens and ¼ cup water. Continue to simmer over low heat, covered, until collards are bright green and tender, about 3 minutes more. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

6. Finish & serve

Coarsely chop cilantro leaves and tender stems and peanuts; season with salt. Add water, a few tablespoons at a time, if needed to thin stew (veggies should be coated in a thick sauce). Serve stew topped with a drizzle of oil, cilantro-peanut mixture, and remaining onions. Enjoy!
