

Peach & Nectarine Cobbler with Cornmeal Drop Biscuits

40-50min

2 Servings

We're giving stone fruit the Southern treatment with this one-skillet treat. Our secret weapon is the tender cornmeal drop biscuit topping with a golden crust crystalized from a little sprinkle of sugar. Savor sweet summer peaches and nectarines for dessert, breakfast, lunch, or even dinner because cobbler is our favorite any-time meal. (2-p plan serves 4; 4-p plan serves 8)

1. Prep equipment & fruit

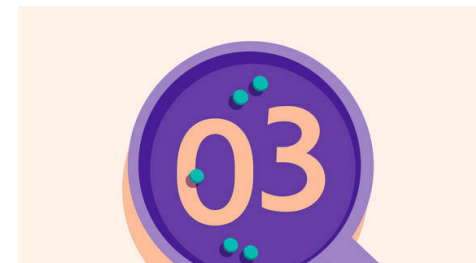

Preheat oven to 375°F with a rack in the center. Lightly butter a medium (10") ovenproof skillet.

Halve all of the peaches and nectarines, remove pits, and cut each half into ½-inch thick slices. Transfer to prepared skillet, then toss with 2 teaspoons flour and a pinch of salt.

2. Add sugar

Sprinkle fruit in skillet with 3 tablespoons sugar. Set aside until step 4.

3. Mix biscuit batter

In a medium bowl, whisk to combine cornbread mix, sour cream, and 3 tablespoons water, stirring until just combined.

4. Assemble cobbler

Dollop biscuit batter over fruit in skillet, then sprinkle with a pinch of sugar (fruit will not be completely covered).

5. Bake & serve

Bake cobbler on center oven rack until fruit is bubbling and drop biscuits are cooked through and browned in spots, about 30-35 minutes.

Let peach and nectarine cobbler stand for 10 minutes before serving. Enjoy!

6. Make it a la mode!

Make it a dessert sensation with a big scoop of vanilla ice cream!
