

Black Bean & Corn Nachos

with Charred Jalapeño Crema

30-40min

2 Servings

We'd never say no to loaded nachos for dinner—there's nothing like the combination of cheese and crunchy corn chips. We wanted to recreate some of those flavors and textures in a homemade version, featuring oven-baked tortillas, charred corn, jalapeño, and fresh cilantro. A drizzle of sour cream and squeeze of fresh lime juice bring them together. Just promise you'll still get in there with your hands.

1. Prep ingredients

Preheat broiler with a rack in the upper third. Halve and thinly slice about 1½ cups onion. Halve jalapeño lengthwise. Transfer onions and corn to a rimmed baking sheet; toss with 2 teaspoons oil and season with salt and pepper. Spread into an even layer. Place jalapeño halves, cut sides-down, on the baking sheet.

2. Broil corn & jalapeño

Broil corn, onions, and jalapeño on upper oven rack until charred in spots, 5-7 minutes (watch closely, as broilers vary). Transfer jalapeño to a small bowl and cover tightly with plastic wrap. Transfer corn and onions to a large bowl. Save baking sheet for step 4. Switch oven to 450°F.

3. Make corn & bean salad

Coarsely chop cilantro leaves and stems together. Drain and rinse beans. Core and chop tomato. Into the bowl with vegetables, grate ¼ teaspoon lime zest, then squeeze 1 tablespoon juice. Cut any remaining lime into wedges. Add beans, tomatoes, ¾ of the chopped cilantro, and 2 tablespoons oil to the bowl; stir to combine. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

4. Bake chips

Line reserved baking sheet with parchment or foil. Stack tortillas, slice into quarters, and transfer to baking sheet; toss with 2 tablespoons oil and season with salt. Bake on upper oven rack until golden-brown and crisp, 10-12 minutes (watch closely as ovens vary). Sprinkle half of the cheddar (save rest for own use) over chips. Bake until cheese melts, 2-3 minutes.

5. Make jalapeño crema

Peel away charred outer skin of jalapeños, discarding skin and stem (remove seeds for less heat, if desired). Finely chop jalapeño and add as much as you'd like to a small bowl (depending on heat preference). Stir in all of the sour cream and 1 teaspoon water at a time until thin enough to dollop. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

6. Finish & serve

Transfer cheesy chips to a serving plate. Top with corn and black bean salad. Dollop with jalapeño crema and garnish with remaining cilantro. Serve any lime wedges on the side for squeezing over. Enjoy!
