1. Toast pitas

Preheat broiler with a rack in the upper third.

Place pitas on a rimmed baking sheet and lightly drizzle both sides with oil. Broil on upper oven rack until toasted, 1–2 minutes per side (watch closely as broilers vary).

2. Prep ingredients

Shuck corn, discarding any strings; remove corn kernels from cob.

Finely grate Parmesan, if necessary.

Trim ends from scallions and cut into 1-inch pieces.

3. Broil veggies

Transfer pitas to a cutting board. Place tomatoes and corn on one side of same baking sheet. Toss with ½ teaspoon granulated garlic and 1 tablespoon oil. Season with salt and pepper.

Broil on upper oven rack until lightly charred, 2–3 minutes. Shake baking sheet and add scallions to open side. Broil until veggies are charred and softened, about 2 minutes more.

4. Assemble

While veggies broil, spread ricotta over each pita and sprinkle some of the Parmesan over top.

Divide tomato and corn mixture evenly between each pita and top with scallions. Sprinkle with remaining Parmesan. Transfer to same baking sheet.

5. Melt cheese & serve

Return pitas to upper oven rack and broil until cheese is just melted and starting to brown, 30–60 seconds (watch closely).

Cut ricotta flatbreads into wedges and serve. Enjoy!

6. Level it up

For more depth of flavor and sweetness, mix a little honey, olive oil, salt, and pepper into the ricotta before spreading it over the pitas.
