Honey-Glazed Morning Buns with Dates

Pistachios & Orange

2 Servings

With a little planning in advance, these homemade treats bake to a puffy golden brown while the honey-orange glaze makes them glisten. Yogurt keeps the buttery dough tender, which envelops crunchy pistachios and a sweet date filling we flavor with Chinese 5-spice and orange zest. The buns chill until ready to bake—and voilà! (2p-plan serves 4; 4p-plan serves 8—nutrition reflects 1 bun)

1. Start dough

Zest the orange; reserve. Squeeze all the orange juice into a small bowl. In a measuring cup, whisk ¼ cup juice, yogurt, and 1 large egg; keep cold. In a large bowl, combine flour, 1 tablespoon brown sugar, 1½ teaspoons yeast, and ½ teaspoon salt. Cut 1 cup cold butter into ½-inch pieces; add to flour and toss to coat. Using your fingertips, smash each cube flat.

2. Roll dough

Stir yogurt mixture into flour-butter mixture until combined. Turn dough onto a floured surface; knead briefly to form a smooth, cohesive ball. Roll dough into 8x15-inch rectangle. Starting at the shorter edge, roll into a tight cylinder. Pat cylinder flat into 4x8-inch rectangle; transfer to a parchment-lined rimmed baking sheet. Cover with plastic wrap and freeze for 15 minutes.

3. Make filling

In a small saucepan, combine dates, a pinch of baking soda, and ½ cup water. Bring to a boil over high heat, then cook over medium-low, mashing occasionally with a fork, until dates soften to the texture of applesauce, 4-6 minutes. Whisk in reserved orange zest, 2 tablespoons each of brown sugar and butter, 1 teaspoon each of Chinese five spice and vanilla, and ¼ teaspoon salt.

4. Fill dough

Grease 8 cups of a muffin tin with nonstick spray. Coarsely chop pistachios.

On a floured work surface, roll chilled dough into an 8x15-inch rectangle; spread filling evenly over dough, leaving a ½-inch border around edges. Sprinkle with pistachios. Starting at the longer edge, roll into a tight cylinder and pinch lightly to seal seam.

5. Chill & bake

Cut dough into 8 pieces and transfer, cut side up, to prepared muffin cups. Cover tin with plastic; proof for 1 hour at room temperature then refrigerate overnight or up to 48 hours.

Preheat oven to 425°F with a rack in the center. Unwrap buns and bake for 10 minutes. Lower heat to 350°F and continue baking until deep golden brown, 30-35 minutes, rotating halfway through.

6. Glaze & serve

Cool buns in muffin tin for 5 minutes, then unmold and transfer to a wire rack. In a small microwave-safe bowl, combine honey, 1 tablespoon brown sugar, and remaining orange juice; microwave, stirring every 30 seconds, until sugar dissolves and mixture is syrupy, 30-90 seconds. Brush buns all over with glaze. Serve warm and enjoy!
