1. Cook rice

Rinse sushi rice in a fine-mesh sieve until water runs clear. In a small saucepan, combine rice, 1¼ cups water, ½ teaspoon salt, and ¼ teaspoon sugar. Bring to a boil. Cover and cook over low heat until rice is tender and liquid is absorbed, about 17 minutes. In the last 3 minutes of cooking, add edamame to rice. Keep covered until ready to serve.

4. Prep ingredients

Using a vegetable peeler, shave carrot into ribbons; cut ribbons in half crosswise, if desired. Trim and thinly slice scallions.

Tear smoked salmon into bite-sized pieces.

2. Marinate cucumbers

Meanwhile, in a small bowl, whisk together 2 large eggs, 2 teaspoons ponzu sauce, and a pinch each of salt and sugar.

Meanwhile, peel cucumber; halve lengthwise, remove and discard seeds, then thinly slice into half moons. In a medium bowl combine cucumbers and remaining ponzu. Toss to coat and reserve for step 6.

5. Make spicy mayo

In a small bowl, combine gochugaru flakes, mayonnaise, ½ teaspoon vinegar, ¼ teaspoon sugar, and a pinch of salt.

3. Cook omelet

Heat 2 teaspoons oil in a small nonstick skillet over medium until shimmering. Add egg mixture and swirl pan to spread to edges. Cover and cook until omelet is set, 3-5 minutes. Use a spatula to slide omelet onto a foil-lined cutting board. When cool enough to handle, use foil as a guide to roll omelet into a cylinder; set aside to cool.

6. Finish & serve

Cut rolled omelet crosswise into ½-inch wide coins. Fluff rice and divide among serving bowls. Top with salmon, eggs, carrots, scallions, and cucumbers. Spoon some of the ponzu sauce over top. Drizzle with spicy mayo and sprinkle with furikake. Enjoy!
