

Fried Fish Sandwich with Cucumber-Dill Slaw,

Tartar Sauce & Oven Fries

30-40min

2 Servings

We're bringing the pub to your kitchen table with this next-level fish sandwich. Cod is the perfect fish for frying! It's light and flakey with a mild flavor. After shallow frying the fish to golden, crunchy perfection, it's ready to stack on top of buttery toasted brioche buns with homemade tartar sauce and tangy cucumber-dill slaw. And like any good fried fish plate, a pile of oven fries alongside takes it over the top.

What we send

- 2 potatoes
- ¼ oz seafood seasoning
- 1 red onion
- ¼ oz fresh dill
- 2 oz mayonnaise ^{2,3}
- 1 cucumber
- 2 oz panko ¹
- 10 oz pkg cod filets ⁴
- 2 brioche buns ^{2,5,1}
- 1 oz cornichon

What you need

- all-purpose flour ¹
- neutral oil
- kosher salt & ground pepper
- apple cider vinegar (or white wine vinegar)
- sugar
- 1 large egg ²

Tools

- rimmed baking sheet
- vegetable peeler
- medium skillet

Cooking tip

Make sure your oil is hot before adding the fish: it should reach 350°F. If you drop a pinch of flour or panko into the oil, it should sizzle vigorously.

1. Prep fries

Preheat oven to 450°F with a rack in the lower third. Place a rimmed baking sheet on lower oven rack to preheat. Scrub potatoes, then halve lengthwise and cut into ¼-inch thick fries. In a large bowl, toss potatoes with 2 tablespoons each of flour and oil; season with salt and pepper. Carefully transfer potatoes to preheated baking sheet and spread to a single layer.

2. Roast fries

Roast fries on lower oven rack, tossing halfway through, until potatoes are tender and browned, 25-30 minutes total. Once fries are cooked, toss with half of the seafood seasoning.

Meanwhile, halve onion, then thinly slice half (save rest for own use). Finely chop 1 teaspoon of the sliced onions; transfer to a small bowl.

3. Make tartar sauce

Pick dill fronds from stems; discard stems. Finely chop 1 teaspoon dill fronds, keeping remaining fronds whole. Finely chop 1 tablespoon cornichon. To small bowl with chopped onions, add chopped cornichons, chopped dill fronds, mayonnaise, 2 teaspoons vinegar, and 1 teaspoon sugar. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Set tartar sauce aside until step 6.

4. Prep slaw

Use a vegetable peeler to shave cucumber into wide ribbons (peel first, if desired). In a medium bowl, combine cucumbers, sliced onions, and whole dill fronds; set slaw aside. Transfer ¼ cup flour to a plate, panko to a bowl, and beat 1 large egg in a 2nd bowl. Pat cod dry; cut each piece in half and season with salt, pepper, and 1 teaspoon seafood seasoning.

5. Dredge & fry fish

Dredge cod in flour, then dip into egg, letting excess drip back in bowl. Press into panko and turn to coat. Heat ¼-inch oil in a medium skillet over medium-high until shimmering. Once oil is hot, add cod and cook until golden and crisp, 3-4 minutes per side (reduce heat if browning too quickly). Transfer cod to paper towel-lined plate to drain and sprinkle with salt.

6. Finish & serve

Split buns and toast in toaster oven (or broil directly on top oven rack) until lightly golden brown, 1-2 minutes. Toss slaw with 2 teaspoons each of sugar, vinegar, and oil; season with salt and pepper. Spread tartar sauce on buns, then place 2 pieces of cod and slaw in between buns, and serve with fries and remaining slaw and cornichons alongside. Enjoy!
