1. Roast potatoes

Preheat oven to 450°F with a rack in the lower third. Scrub potatoes; cut into 1-inch pieces. On a parchment-lined rimmed baking sheet, toss potatoes with 1 tablespoon oil and 1 tablespoon Italian seasoning; season with salt and pepper. Roast on lower oven rack until deeply browned and tender, stirring halfway through, 30–35 minutes.

2. Prep ingredients

Meanwhile, finely chop 1 large garlic clove. Finely grate half of the lemon zest and squeeze 1 tablespoon juice, keeping separate. Pick parsley leaves from stems and finely chop; discard stems.

Pat salmon dry. Season all over with salt and pepper.

3. Cook salmon

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a medium nonstick skillet over medium-high. Reduce heat to medium; add salmon, skin-side down. Firmly press each filet with back of a spatula, 10 seconds. Cook, occasionally pressing gently on filets, until skin is well browned and very crisp and fish is almost cooked through, 4–5 minutes. Flip and cook until just medium, about 1 minute more.

4. Make sauce

Transfer salmon to a plate; loosely cover with aluminum foil to keep warm, if desired.

Add garlic to remaining oil in skillet; cook until fragrant, about 30 seconds. Add capers, lemon zest and juice, and ½ cup water. Bring to a simmer over high heat, scraping up any browned bits from bottom of skillet. Cook until sauce is reduced by half, 1–2 minutes.

5. Finish & serve

Off heat, whisk 2 tablespoons butter into sauce until creamy and fully combined. Season sauce to taste with salt and pepper. Stir in parsley.

Serve salmon and potatoes with piccata sauce spooned over top. Enjoy!

6. Perfect pan sauce!

Whisking cold butter into the hot caper and lemon mixture ensures that the butter emulsifies the sauce. If the sauce separates and doesn't coat the back of a spoon, add a splash of water and return to a simmer over medium heat. Whisk to redistribute the butter and soon you'll have the silkiest pan sauce in the history of piccatas!
