

Crispy Skinned Salmon

with Coriander Carrot Salad & Quinoa

 30-40min  2 Servings

Salmon skin is incredibly tasty when cooked right—and, bonus, it's full of nutrients. It gets super crisp when seared in a hot skillet, adding a great contrast of texture to the flaky flesh. If you're not a fan of salmon skin, no worries, it's easy to remove once the fish is cooked. But try it! It's not known as the bacon of the sea for nothing.

1. Cook quinoa

Preheat oven to 350°F with a rack in the center. Place quinoa in a small saucepan along with ¾ cup water and a pinch of salt. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat to low, cover, and cook until water is absorbed and quinoa is tender, about 15 minutes. Keep covered until ready to serve.

4. Blanch carrots

Scrub carrots, then cut about 1½ cups into ½-inch pieces. Fill a medium pot with salted water. Bring to a boil; add carrots. Cover and simmer until just tender, 5–7 minutes. Drain carrots well, then transfer to bowl with dressing and toss to combine.

2. Toast pistachios

Spread pistachios out on a rimmed baking sheet. Toast on center oven rack until golden and fragrant, 6–8 minutes (watch closely as ovens vary). Let cool, then coarsely chop. Meanwhile, transfer ½ teaspoon coriander seeds to a medium nonstick skillet. Toast over medium heat, swirling occasionally, until fragrant, about 1 minute. Let cool, then coarsely chop. Reserve skillet for step 5.

5. Cook salmon

Pat fish dry and season all over with salt and pepper. Heat 2 teaspoons oil in the reserved skillet over medium-high. When oil is shimmering, add fish, skin side down, and cook until golden and crisp, 4–5 minutes. Flip and cook to desired doneness, 2–4 minutes. Transfer to plates.

3. Make dressing

Finely chop ½ teaspoon garlic; transfer to a large bowl. Halve lemon, then squeeze juice from one half into bowl with garlic. Cut remaining lemon into wedges. Add chopped coriander seeds, 2 tablespoons oil, and a pinch of crushed red pepper (more or less depending on heat preference); whisk to combine. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

6. Finish & serve

Pick cilantro leaves and tender stems from sprigs, add to carrots along with pistachios and toss to combine. Serve salmon, skin side up, with quinoa, carrot salad, and lemon wedges for squeezing over top. Enjoy!
