

20-Min: Warm Tarragon Chicken Salad

with Capers & Dijon Vinaigrette

20-30min

2 Servings

Using fresh herbs is a great way to pack a ton of flavor into a quick-to-make meal. We combine tarragon, which has a slightly sweet, anise-like flavor with bold, briny capers, and Dijon mustard for a tangy warm vinaigrette that coats tender chicken breasts. It's all layered on crisp romaine with peppery sliced radishes and sweet sugar snap peas. Just because you're short on time doesn't mean you have to skimp on flavor.

1. Make vinaigrette

Finely chop 1 tablespoon tarragon leaves and stems. Finely chop ½ teaspoon garlic. In a small bowl, combine chopped garlic, Dijon mustard, half of the tarragon, 2 tablespoons each of water and oil, and 2 teaspoons vinegar. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

2. Prep vegetables

Cut snap peas in half crosswise, if desired. Quarter lettuce lengthwise, then halve crosswise. Scrub radishes, then halve and thinly slice into half-moons.

3. Season chicken

Pat chicken dry, then season all over with salt and pepper.

4. Cook chicken

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a medium skillet over medium-high. Add chicken and cook until lightly browned and cooked through, 3-4 minutes per side. Transfer chicken to a plate.

5. Finish vinaigrette

Add capers to same skillet; cook until fragrant, about 30 seconds. Carefully add vinaigrette, then bring to a simmer, scraping any browned bits from the bottom, about 30 seconds. Season to taste with salt and pepper. (If vinaigrette appears broken, stir in 1 tablespoon hot tap water.)

6. Finish & serve

Slice chicken, if desired. Arrange lettuce, snap peas, and radishes on plates. Top with chicken, then spoon warm vinaigrette over top. Garnish with remaining chopped tarragon. Enjoy!
