1. Prep potatoes & broth

Preheat oven to 450°F with a rack in the upper third. Scrub potato, then cut lengthwise into ½-inch wedges. In a liquid measuring cup, stir together chicken broth concentrate and 1 cup water. Zest lemon, then separately squeeze 3 tablespoons juice. On a rimmed baking sheet, toss potatoes with 2 tablespoons oil and a generous pinch each of salt and pepper.

2. Roast potatoes

Spread potatoes in an even layer, then pour prepared chicken broth all over top. Roast on upper oven rack until potatoes begin to soften, about 15 minutes. Pour 2 tablespoons of the lemon juice over potatoes, shaking to distribute. Return potatoes to upper oven rack and continue to roast until tender and juices are nearly evaporated, 8-10 minutes.

3. Make dressing

While potatoes roast, peel and finely grate ¼ teaspoon garlic into a medium bowl. Whisk in remaining lemon juice and 2 tablespoons oil; season with salt and pepper.

4. Cook chicken

Pat chicken dry, then pound to ½-inch thickness, if desired; season all over with salt and pepper. Sprinkle 1 tablespoon of the dried oregano all over chicken. Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a medium skillet over medium-high. Add chicken and cook until golden brown and cooked through, 2-3 minutes per side.

5. Broil potatoes & serve

Once potatoes are tender, switch oven to broil and roast on upper oven rack until slightly charred around the edges, 2-3 minutes (watch closely). Remove from oven and toss roasted potatoes with lemon zest. Toss spinach with dressing. Serve oregano chicken with Greek lemon potatoes and spinach salad alongside. Enjoy!

6. Make it a sandwich!

Leftovers? Looking for lunch? Just like to hold food in your hands? We get it. Pile the chicken and spinach salad on top of your favorite toasty bread or rolls, and slather with a garlicky mayo. Add pickled onions, sliced tomatoes, whatever you like! Serve the potatoes alongside.
