1. Cook rice

Preheat broiler with a rack in the upper third.

In a medium saucepan, add rice, 1¼ cups water, and ½ teaspoon salt; bring to a boil over high. Cover and cook over low heat until rice is tender and water is absorbed, about 17 minutes. Keep covered off heat until step 5.

2. Prep tomato rice

While rice cooks, cut tomatoes into ½-inch cubes. Finely chop 2 teaspoons garlic.

In a medium bowl, stir to combine tomatoes, half of the chopped garlic, 2 teaspoons vinegar, 1 teaspoon oil, and a pinch each of salt and sugar; set aside until step 5.

3. Broil meatballs

Spread out meatballs on a rimmed baking sheet. Broil on upper oven rack, shaking sheet occasionally, until browned, about 7 minutes (watch closely as broilers vary).

4. Finish meatballs

While meatballs cook, in a second medium bowl, stir to combine hoisin, remaining chopped garlic, juice from half a lime, 1 teaspoon oil, and a pinch of salt.

Pour sauce over meatballs directly on baking sheet. Return to oven and broil until deeply browned, 1–2 minutes more (watch closely).

5. Finish & serve

Cut remaining lime into wedges. Fluff rice with a fork and stir in marinated tomatoes. Pick cilantro leaves from stems; discard stems.

Serve sticky hoisin meatballs over tomato rice. Garnish with cilantro leaves and serve with lime wedges alongside for squeezing over top. Enjoy!

6. Turn up the heat

Here at Dinnerly, we like our food with a bit of a kick. Can you relate? Drizzle some Sriracha over top before serving!
