

Fast! Pork Cutlets à l'Orange

with Apple-Fennel Sauté & Spinach

ca. 20min

2 Servings

The classic French duck à l'orange is a complicated dish best served in restaurants. In our home version we brown tender pork cutlets and serve them with a bright and tangy homemade orange sauce that comes together in a breeze. On the side is a unique vegetable-forward dish with sautéed fennel, apples, and spinach. There are lots of bright, sweet-and-sour flavors here to transport your palate to the sunny South of France.

1. Prep ingredients

Halve fennel, remove and discard core, and thinly slice. Quarter apple, discard core, and thinly slice each quarter. Pat pork cutlets dry, then season all over with salt and pepper.

2. Cook pork

In a medium skillet, heat 1 tablespoon oil over medium-high. Add pork cutlets, in batches if necessary, and cook until just browned and cooked through, about 2 minutes per side. Transfer pork to a plate and cover to keep warm. Return skillet to stovetop.

3. Cook fennel & apples

Heat 1 tablespoon butter in same skillet over medium. Add fennel and apples; season with salt and pepper. Cook, covered, until softened, 5-7 minutes. Stir in spinach and cook until just wilted, 1-2 minutes. Transfer mixture to a serving platter and cover to keep warm. Reserve skillet for step 5.

4. Make orange sauce

Meanwhile, finely grate 2 teaspoons orange zest and squeeze all of the orange juice into a small bowl. Whisk in mustard, honey, and 1 tablespoon water. Season orange sauce to taste with salt and pepper.

5. Cook orange sauce

Add orange sauce and any resting pork juices to reserved skillet. Cook over medium heat, stirring and scraping up any brown bits, until sauce is thick enough to coat the back of a spoon, 2-3 minutes.

6. Finish & serve

Arrange pork cutlets over fennel and apples and spoon orange sauce over top. Enjoy!
