Ground Chicken Gyros with Crispy Fries & Ranch

40-50min

Handheld gyros are as mouth-watering as they are easy to prepare. A blend of warm spices infuses ground chicken for a lightened-up version that is full of flavor. 1. Bake fries

Preheat oven to 450°F with racks in the center and lower third.

Scrub potatoes; cut into ½-inch thick fries. Toss on a rimmed baking sheet with 2 tablespoons oil; season with salt and pepper. Bake on lower oven rack until golden brown and crisp, stirring halfway through, 35–40 minutes.

4. Warm pitas

Using a stiff metal spatula, scrape underneath patty to release and transfer to a cutting board.

Brush 1 side of each pita with oil. Bake, oiled-side up, directly on center oven rack until warmed and flexible, 2–3 minutes.

2. Prep ingredients

Thinly slice a quarter of the lettuce (save rest for own use). Thinly slice half of the onion and place in a small bowl of ice water; set aside.

Coarsely grate remaining onion into a medium bowl. Add chicken, gyro spice, ½ teaspoon salt, and a couple grinds of pepper. Using a wooden spoon, vigorously mix until well combined and slightly tacky, 1–2 minutes.

5. Assemble & serve

Drain onions and pat dry. Cut chicken patty into ½-inch strips.

Divide chicken between pitats, drizzle with ranch, and top with lettuce and onion. Serve with fries. Enjoy!

3. Cook gyro

Wrap bottom of a small saucepan or skillet with foil.

In a medium heavy skillet (preferably cast-iron), heat 2 teaspoons oil over medium-high until lightly smoking; wipe out excess oil with a paper towel. Add chicken; smash flat using prepared saucepan into an 8-inch patty. Cover skillet; cook until outer edges are browned and crispy and top is pale and cooked through, 3–5 minutes.

6. Spice it up!

Add some spice to this dish by drizzling on Sriracha or sprinkling it with red pepper flakes.
