So we deconstructed it to make a delicious meal that you don't need hours, a ton of ingredients, or any special equipment to make! 1. Prep ingredients

Trim ends from carrots, then peel and thinly slice. Peel and finely chop 1 teaspoon garlic. Pat chicken dry, then cut into 1-inch pieces. In a medium bowl, toss chicken with 1 teaspoon flour. Season with salt and pepper. In a large liquid measuring cup, whisk together chicken broth concentrate, 1 tablespoon flour, and 1¼ cups water.

2. Cook couscous

In a small saucepan, bring 1 cup water to a boil. Add couscous, ½ teaspoon oil, ¼ teaspoon salt, and a few grinds pepper. Cover and let stand off heat for 5 minutes. Cover to keep warm.

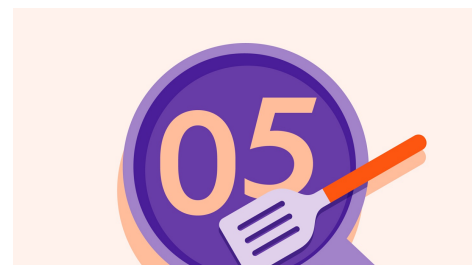

3. Brown chicken

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a medium skillet over medium-high. Add chicken and cook until browned in spots, 4–5 minutes. Transfer chicken to a plate. Return skillet to stovetop.

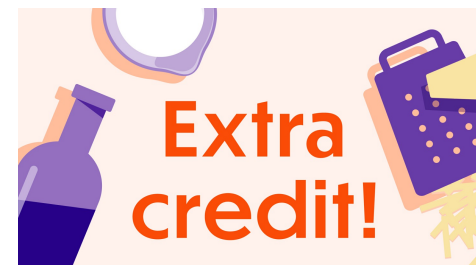

4. Build sauce

Add 1 tablespoon oil and carrots to same skillet over medium-high. Cook until carrots are just tender, about 2 minutes, reducing heat to medium if browning too quickly. Add garlic, 1½–2 teaspoons harissa spice (depending on heat preference), and ¼ teaspoon sugar. Cook until fragrant, about 30 seconds.

5. Finish & serve

Add chicken broth mixture to skillet, whisking constantly. Cook, stirring, until carrots are tender and the liquid is slightly thickened and reduced to ¾ cup, 3–4 minutes. Add chicken and any resting juices; cook, stirring, until warm, 1 minute. Remove from heat. Stir in ½ tablespoon butter. Serve chicken and carrots over couscous.

6. Take it to the next level

Serve the chicken and carrots topped with finely chopped green olives, preserved lemon, and/or fresh parsley for an added layer of flavor.
