Indonesian Sweet Soy Steak with Fresno Chiles & Cilantro

ca. 20min

2 Servings

Brimming with bold and complex flavors, Indonesian kecap manis is a sweet soy sauce that elevates everything it touches. Here, hearty steak strips brown alongside caramelized onions, Fresno chiles, and the sweet and sour soy sauce that creates a flavorsome glaze. A garnish of fresh chiles and cilantro is all that's needed for this crowd-pleaser served over steamy jasmine rice. We've got you covered!

1. Cook rice

In a small saucepan, combine rice, 1¼ cups water, and ½ teaspoon salt. Bring to a boil over high heat. Cover and cook over low heat until rice is tender and liquid is absorbed, about 17 minutes. Keep covered off heat until ready to serve.

2. Prep ingredients

Halve onion and thinly slice. Finely chop 1 teaspoon garlic. Thinly slice half of the Fresno chile and finely chop remaining (remove stem and seeds for less heat). Pick cilantro leaves from stems and set aside for serving; finely chop stems.

Pat steaks dry and thinly slice across the grain. Season with salt and pepper.

3. Cook onions

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a medium skillet over medium-high. Add onions and cook, stirring occasionally, until deeply browned and caramelized, 8–12 minutes. If skillet begins to burn, add 1–2 tablespoons water at a time and scrape up browned bits from the bottom. Transfer to a bowl.

4. Cook steak

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in same skillet over medium-high. Add steak; cook until browned and medium rare, 3–4 minutes. Add garlic, chopped chiles, and cilantro stems. Cook until fragrant, 1–2 minutes. Lower heat to medium and stir in onions, kecap manis, 1 tablespoon sweet and sour sauce, and 1 teaspoon vinegar.

5. Finish & serve

Cook, stirring frequently, until sauce is reduced and coats steak, 1–3 minutes. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Fluff rice with a fork.

Serve sweet soy steak over rice and garnish with sliced chiles and cilantro leaves. Enjoy!
