Appy Hour! Mini Sausage Deep Dish Pizzas

with Fontina & Parmesan

30-40min

2 Servings

Be careful with these mini deep dish pizzas—everyone might be so busy eating them that they'll forget about the main course! We can't blame them when they're stuffed with two cheeses, Italian sausage, and saucy marinara, then baked till crisp around the edges. We've got you covered! (2p-plan serves 4; 4p-plan serves 8)

1. Prep tin & cheese

Preheat oven to 450°F with a rack in the bottom. Grease a 12-cup muffin tin with 1 teaspoon oil in each cup, wiping around with a paper towel.

Finely grate Parmesan. Combine fontina and half of the Parmesan in a bowl.

2. Roll dough

On a floured work surface, roll dough into a log and divide into 12 pieces. Roll each piece into a 3-inch circle. Transfer to prepared muffin tin, pressing dough into sides of cups until it reaches ½-inch below the rim.

3. Assemble

Divide cheese mixture among cups, spreading to edge of dough. Break sausage into ½-inch pieces and divide among cups. Top each with 1 tablespoon marinara, spreading to edges.

4. Bake

Place a rimmed baking sheet underneath bottom oven rack to catch any drips. Bake pizzas on bottom oven rack until crust is browned and cheese is bubbling, 15–20 minutes, (check by sliding a small thin spatula around and underneath edges).

Let cool 5 minutes in tin, then remove with a thin metal spatula and transfer to a wire rack.

5. Serve

Pick parsley leaves from stems and finely chop; discard stems.

Serve mini deep dish pizzas sprinkled with parsley and remaining Parmesan. Enjoy!

6. Bring the heat!

If you want to spice it up, serve these pizzas with your favorite hot sauce or top them with hot peppers before serving.
