Fast! Korean Turkey Rice Bowl

with Cucumber-Sesame Salad

ca. 20min 2 Servings

Speedy and delicious, we love the ease of this Korean-style rice bowl. Here we simmer ground turkey and onions in a sweet and spicy sauce made with gochujang, brown sugar, and tamari. We top aromatic jasmine rice with the turkey, soaking up the warming sauce, and crisp sesame-marinated cucumbers alongside adding a cooling crunch to every bite. Your taste buds won't believe this meal came together in 20 minutes!

1. Cook rice

In a small saucepan, combine rice, 1% cups water, and % teaspoon salt Bring to a boil. Cover and cook over low until rice is tender and liquid is absorbed, about 17 minutes. Keep covered until ready to serve.

2. Prep onion

Meanwhile, halve onion and cut one half into ¼-inch pieces (save rest for own use).

3. Cook turkey

Heat 1 tablespoon neutral oil in a medium skillet over medium-high. Add onions and turkey; cook, breaking turkey up into smaller pieces, until browned and cooked through, 6-8 minutes.

4. Marinate cucumbers

Meanwhile, halve cucumber, scoop out and discard seeds, and thinly slice. In a medium bowl, combine sesame oil, 2 teaspoons tamari, ½ teaspoon vinegar, and ¼ teaspoon each of salt and sugar. Add cucumbers and toss to combine; set aside to marinate until step 6.

Coarsely chop cilantro leaves and stems.

5. Build sauce

To skillet with turkey, add ½ cup water and bring to a simmer, scraping up bits from the bottom. Stir in 2 tablespoons gochujang (or more depending on heat preference), 2 tablespoons brown sugar, 1 tablespoon tamari, and ¼ teaspoon vinegar.

Cook, stirring, until sauce is reduced and coats meat, 1-2 minutes. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

6. Finish & serve

Thin remaining gochujang with 1 teaspoon water.

Fluff rice with a fork and spoon into bowls. Top with marinated cucumbers and pork. Garnish with sesame seeds and cilantro. Drizzle pork with remaining gochujang, if desired. Enjoy!
