

Chicken Yassa & Ready to Heat Rice with Collard Greens

 40-50min  2 Servings

Chicken Yassa is a West African stew that's all about warm, comforting flavors. It's full of caramelized onions and tender chicken breasts simmered in a sweet and spicy lemon sauce. The heat comes from fresh jalapeños, but if spicy isn't your jam, hold back on the peppers and add as much as you like. We pair this saucy dish with tender collard greens and rice to soak up any remaining sauce—you won't want to waste a drop!

1. Prep aromatics; cook rice

Finely chop 1 tablespoon each garlic and peeled ginger, keeping separate. Thinly slice jalapeño; finely chop 1 teaspoon. Squeeze 1½ tablespoons lemon juice into a medium bowl; cut remaining into wedges.

Transfer rice to a bowl; cover and microwave on high until steaming, 1-2 minutes. Cover to keep warm until ready to serve.

4. Cook collard greens

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a medium skillet over medium-high. Add collard greens and remaining garlic; cook, stirring, until wilted, 1-2 minutes. Add 3 tablespoons water and season with salt and pepper. Cook until collards are bright green and tender, and water is evaporated, 2-3 minutes. Transfer to a bowl and cover to keep warm. Rinse and dry skillet.

2. Marinate chicken

Pat chicken dry, then pound to an even ½-inch thickness, if desired. To bowl with lemon juice, whisk in all of the Dijon mustard, chopped ginger and jalapeno, half of the chopped garlic, 1½ tablespoons each of oil and vinegar, and ½ teaspoon salt. Add chicken and turn to coat. Set aside to marinate until step 5.

5. Sauté onions

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in same skillet over medium-high. Add onions; season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring, until softened and golden, 2-3 minutes. Scrape marinade (do not discard) off chicken. Push onions to outer edges of skillet; add chicken to center. Cook, stirring onions occasionally, until chicken is deeply browned underneath but not cooked through, 4-5 minutes.

3. Prep vegetables

Trim ends from half of the collard greens (save rest for own use), remove tough center stem, then stack leaves and cut into 1½-inch ribbons. Halve and thinly slice all of the onion. In a small bowl, toss sliced jalapeños with 1 teaspoon vinegar and a pinch of sugar; set pickled jalapeños aside until ready to serve.

6. Finish & serve

Flip chicken; stir in marinade, ½ cup water, and 1½ teaspoons sugar; scrap up any browned bits. Reduce heat to medium-low; cook until sauce is reduced by half and chicken is cooked through, 5-6 minutes. Season to taste with salt. Fluff rice. Serve chicken topped with olives (remove any pits) and pickled jalapeños alongside rice and collard greens. Enjoy!
