1. Cook noodles

Bring a large saucepan of salted water to a boil over high. Add noodles and cook, stirring occasionally, until al dente, 5–6 minutes. Drain noodles and return to saucepan. Toss with 1 tablespoon butter and cover to keep warm off heat.

Halve and thinly slice onion.

2. Brown meatballs

In a large bowl, mix to combine chicken, panko, a pinch of granulated garlic, 1 large egg, ¾ teaspoon salt, and a few grinds of pepper. Shape into 8 meatballs (2 tablespoons each). Heat 1½ tablespoons oil in a medium ovenproof skillet. Add meatballs and cook until browned all over (will not be cooked through), 4–6 minutes. Transfer to a paper towel-lined plate.

3. Caramelize onions

Preheat broiler with a rack in the top position.

Discard any fat in skillet and melt 2 tablespoons butter in same skillet over medium heat. Add sliced onions; season with salt. Cook, stirring, until onions are tender and deeply browned (if skillet gets too dry, add 1 tablespoon water at a time, as needed), 8–10 minutes.

4. Make French onion sauce

In a measuring cup, whisk to combine broth concentrate and 1 cup water.

To skillet with onions over medium-high, add ½ tablespoon flour, stirring to coat. Stir in broth mixture and cook, stirring, until sauce is slightly thickened, about 3 minutes. Return meatballs back to skillet, then reduce heat to medium-low. Simmer until meatballs are cooked through, 2–3 minutes.

5. Finish & serve

Sprinkle fontina over meatballs in skillet. Broil on top oven rack until cheese is melted and browned in spots, 1–3 minutes (watch closely as broilers vary).

Serve egg noodles with French onion meatballs and sauce spooned over top. Enjoy!

6. Make it ahead!

Make it to dinnertime in a quick 1, 2, 3 by making your meatballs ahead of time! Mix and shape your meatballs the night before, and keep in an air-tight container in the fridge. Bring the meatballs to room temperature before browning in step 2.
