1. Prep ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F with a rack in the center. Scrub sweet potato, then cut lengthwise into ½-inch thick wedges. Halve and thinly slice all of the shallot lengthwise. Strip kale leaves from stems, then roughly chop leaves, discarding stems. In a medium bowl, toss kale with 2 teaspoons oil and season with salt and pepper.

4. Sear steaks

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in same skillet over medium-high. Pat steaks dry and season all over with salt and pepper. Add steaks and cook, undisturbed, until browned, 3-4 minutes per side for medium-rare (or longer for desired doneness). Transfer steaks to a cutting board to rest.

2. Roast sweet potato wedges

On a rimmed baking sheet, toss sweet potato wedges with 1 tablespoon oil and a pinch each of salt and pepper. Spread into a single layer and roast on center oven rack until potatoes are tender and golden, about 20 minutes.

5. Make pan sauce

Add ⅓ cup water and 1 tablespoon each of mustard and vinegar to same skillet; bring to a rapid simmer over medium-high. Cook, scraping up browned bits from bottom of the skillet, until slightly reduced, about 2 minutes. Add 1 tablespoon butter and any resting juices from the steak and swirl until melted. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

3. Fry shallots

Meanwhile, heat 3 tablespoons oil in a medium skillet over medium until shimmering. Add shallots and cook, stirring frequently with a fork, until golden, 7-10 minutes (watch closely, shallots will continue to darken once out of the oil). Transfer to a paper towel-lined plate; season with salt. Discard frying oil.

6. Wilt kale & serve

Meanwhile, scatter kale over sweet potatoes and continue to roast on center oven rack until kale is wilted, about 5 minutes. Serve steaks with roasted sweet potatoes and kale, and spoon sauce all over. Top with fried shallots. Enjoy!
