1. Roast potatoes

Preheat oven to 450°F with racks in the upper and lower thirds. Use a sharp knife, mandoline, or V-slicer to carefully slice potatoes into ¼-inch thick rounds. On a rimmed baking sheet, toss potatoes with 2 tablespoons oil, and a generous pinch of salt, spreading into an even layer. Roast on lower oven rack until golden and crisp, about 18-20 minutes.

2. Prep ingredients

While potatoes roast, coarsely chop cilantro stems and leaves. Trim scallions, then thinly slice about ¼ cup, keeping dark greens separate. Thinly slice jalapeño crosswise into rounds, discarding seeds; finely chop 1 teaspoon of the sliced jalapeño. Core tomatoes, then cut into ¼-inch pieces.

3. Cook beef

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a medium skillet over medium-high. Add beef and cook, breaking up with a spoon, until browned, 4–5 minutes. Spoon off any fat. Stir in scallion whites and light greens, 1½ teaspoons cumin, and a pinch each of salt and pepper; cook until fragrant, 1 minute. Stir in ½ cup water and 1 tablespoon ketchup. Cook until skillet is nearly dry, 5–6 minutes.

4. Prep pico & guacamole

Meanwhile, in a small bowl, stir to combine all of the chopped jalapeño (or less depending on heat preference), tomatoes, ¼ each of the cilantro and scallion dark greens, and 1 teaspoon vinegar. Season to taste with salt.

Transfer guacamole to 2nd small bowl; season to taste with salt and pepper. Thin with 1 tablespoon water at a time until desired consistency.

5. Assemble nachos

Arrange potatoes on baking sheet into a tight rectangle. Spoon beef mixture over top of potatoes, then sprinkle with cheddar and sliced jalapeños (depending on heat preference).

6. Bake nachos & serve

Bake nachos on upper oven rack until cheese is melted and bubbling, about 5-7 minutes (watch closely as ovens vary). Serve beef potato nachos topped with pico de gallo, seasoned guacamole, and remaining cilantro and scallions. Enjoy!
