

Chicken Paprikash

with Crusty Bread

20-30min

2 Servings

Chicken paprikash is a comforting Hungarian stew full of deep, rich flavor, and our version is no different, despite the quick cook time! We simmer tender slices of chicken breast in a tomato-based sauce with sweet paprika, bell peppers, and leeks. Sour cream and dill fronds are served on top to add a delightful freshness to this hearty stew. Of course, crusty bread is a must for soaking up the luscious sauce!

1. Prep ingredients

Preheat oven to 350°F with a rack in the center. Halve leek lengthwise, then rinse under running water, pat dry, and cut half into ¼-inch pieces (reserve other half for own use). Halve pepper, discard stem and seeds, then cut into ¼-inch pieces. Pat chicken dry and season all over with salt and pepper.

4. Bloom aromatics

Add 2 teaspoons each of paprika, tomato paste and flour. Stir well to combine; cook over medium-low heat, stirring often, until paprika is fragrant and tomato paste is darkened slightly, about 2 minutes.

2. Sear chicken

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a medium skillet over high until shimmering. Add chicken in a single layer and cook, undisturbed, until browned on the bottom but not completely cooked through, around 2-3 minutes. Transfer to a plate and reserve until step 5.

5. Simmer

Place baguette in the oven on the center rack for 5 minutes to warm. Add all of the broth concentrate and 1 cup water to skillet. Bring to a boil, and simmer on medium for 3-4 minutes until liquid is slightly thickened and flavors have melded. Stir in reserved chicken and peas; simmer for another minute until peas are tender and chicken is cooked through.

3. Cook vegetables

Turn heat down to medium and add 3 tablespoons butter to skillet. Add chopped leeks, peppers, and a pinch of salt. Cook, stirring occasionally, until vegetables are softened, translucent, and tender, 7-10 minutes. Lower the heat if vegetables are starting to brown before they are tender.

6. Finish & serve

Pick a couple of dill fronds for garnish and finely chop remaining fronds and stems. Stir chopped dill and sour cream into skillet. Season paprikash with ¼ teaspoon vinegar and salt and pepper to taste. Divide paprikash between bowls and garnish with remaining dill fronds. Serve with warm bread on the side. Enjoy!
