1. Prep ingredients

Bring a large saucepan of water to a boil over high heat.

Trim ends from scallions and thinly slice, keeping dark greens separate. Cut bacon into ½-inch pieces.

Into a small bowl, finely grate ¾ of the Parmesan, if necessary. Add 4 teaspoons ramen base, 2 large eggs, 1 egg yolk (see step 6!), and ½ teaspoon pepper; whisk until combined. Set aside for step 4.

4. Add noodles to bacon

To saucepan with bacon, add noodles, peas, scallion whites and light greens, 1 cup of the cooking water, and egg mixture. Immediately stir vigorously with tongs or chopsticks until sauce is smooth and creamy. If sauce is too thick, loosen with ¼ cup of the remaining cooking water at a time, as needed.

2. Cook bacon

In a second large saucepan, add bacon. Cook over medium-high heat, stirring occasionally, until golden-brown and crisp, 5–7 minutes. Set aside off heat until step 4.

5. Finish & serve

Divide noodles, peas, and scallions between bowls. Finely grate remaining Parmesan over top.

Serve ramen carbonara with scallion dark greens sprinkled over top. Enjoy!

3. Cook noodles & peas

Gently pull ramen noodles apart. Add to saucepan with boiling water; cook, stirring to prevent clumping, until almost al dente, about 1½ minutes. Add peas; cook until noodles are al dente and peas are tender, another 30 seconds. Reserve 1½ cups cooking water; drain noodles and peas.

6. Separate an egg!

One way to separate the egg yolk from the white is to crack the egg into your hand and let the white run through your fingers. If you don't like to get messy, crack the egg into a small bowl and use the shell or a spoon to scoop up the yolk. Discard the white or save it to make omelettes, meringue, or whatever you like!
