Don't you love it when a plate tastes as good as it looks? We do! So we upped the flavor factor here, soaking tender pan-roasted steaks and crisped capers in a lemony post-cooking marinade, which turns into a bright and briny sauce. Vibrant red radishes, sugar snap peas, and carrots are a colorful sautéed veggie side—eating the rainbow has never tasted so good!

1. Prep ingredients

Finely chop 1 teaspoon garlic. Finely grate ½ teaspoon lemon zest. Separately, squeeze 1 ½ teaspoons lemon juice into a medium bowl. Cut any remaining lemon into wedges.

Trim ends from snap peas. Scrub carrot, then thinly slice on an angle. Scrub radishes, then cut into ¼-inch thick wedges. Finely chop parsley leaves and stems.

4. Sauté veggies

Heat 2 teaspoons oil in same skillet over medium-high. Add carrots, radishes, and snap peas; season with salt and pepper. Cook, stirring occasionally, until crisp-tender, 3-4 minutes.

2. Make post-marinade

To bowl with lemon juice, add chopped garlic, 1 tablespoon oil, and 1 teaspoon water; whisk to combine. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

Pat steaks dry, then season all over with salt and pepper.

5. Season veggies

Add lemon zest and ½ tablespoon butter to skillet with veggies; stir until butter is melted. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

3. Sear steaks

Heat 2 teaspoons oil in a medium skillet over medium-high. Add steaks and cook until browned and medium-rare, about 3-4 minutes per side (or longer for desired doneness). Add capers and cook until fragrant, about 30 seconds.

Transfer steaks and capers to bowl with post-marinade and turn to coat. Wipe out skillet and return to stove top.

6. Finish & serve

Remove steaks from post marinade and thinly slice, if desired. Stir parsley into post marinade.

Serve steak with any remaining marinade spooned over top, and with veggies and any lemon wedges alongside. Enjoy!
