1. Prep ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F with racks in the upper and lower third. Finely chop onion. Finely chop cranberries. Peel potatoes and cut into 1-inch pieces. Place potatoes in a medium saucepan with enough salted water to cover by 1 inch. Bring potatoes to a boil and cook until tender, 8–10 minutes. Drain and return to saucepan off the heat.

2. Make cranberry sauce

Meanwhile, in a small saucepan, heat 1 tablespoon oil over medium-high. Add onions; cook until golden, 2–3 minutes. Transfer to a bowl. To same saucepan, add cranberries, ½ cup water, 1 tablespoon sugar, and 1 tablespoon cooked onions; bring to a simmer. Cook until sauce is thick and jammy, 6–8 minutes. Mash with a fork; transfer to a bowl. Wipe out saucepan; set aside.

3. Roast meatloaves

To bowl with cooked onions, add turkey, panko, 1 tablespoon oil, 1 teaspoon salt, and ½ teaspoon pepper; gently knead to combine. Form into 2 (4-inch long) meatloaves. Place in a medium ovenproof skillet and roast on lower oven rack until just firm to the touch, 15–16 minutes. Remove meatloaves from oven and switch oven to broil.

4. Make veggie sides

Brush meatloaves with sauce; broil on upper oven rack until sizzling, 2–3 minutes. Meanwhile, heat potatoes over medium and mash with ¼ cup milk and 2 tablespoons butter until smooth consistency; season with salt. To reserved saucepan, add peas, 2 tablespoons water, and 1 tablespoon butter. Cook until heated through, about 3 minutes; season with salt.

5. Make gravy & serve

Transfer meatloaves to plates. Place same skillet over medium-high. Add turkey broth packet and ¼ cup water and bring to a boil. Simmer, scraping browned bits from bottom of skillet, 1–2 minutes. Serve cranberry-glazed meatloaves with mashed potatoes, peas, and any remaining cranberry sauce alongside. Top potatoes with gravy. Enjoy!

6. Make it ahead!

Make the evening rush more manageable by mixing and shaping the meatloaves ahead of time. Store in a tightly sealed container in the fridge until you're ready to cook.
