1. Start pancake batter

In a medium bowl, whisk to combine buttermilk powder and ⅔ cup water until smooth. Whisk in 2 large eggs and ⅓ cup oats. Set aside to let oats soften, at least 10 minutes, until step 4.

In a second medium bowl, combine flour, chia seeds, 3 tablespoons sugar, and ¼ teaspoon salt. Set aside for step 4.

2. Make granola

Melt 2 tablespoons butter in a large nonstick skillet over medium. Add remaining oats, 1 tablespoon maple syrup, ¼ teaspoon cinnamon, and a pinch of salt. Cook, stirring occasionally, until oats are toasted and dried out, 7–10 minutes.

Transfer to a plate in an even layer; let cool completely.

3. Cook bacon

Working in batches if necessary, place bacon in same skillet. Cook over medium-high heat until fat is rendered and bacon is crisp, 3–4 minutes per side. Transfer bacon to a paper towel-lined plate; reserve fat in skillet.

4. Finish batter & cook

To bowl with softened oats, add flour mixture and 2 tablespoons melted butter; whisk until just smooth.

Heat reserved bacon fat over medium-low, swirling skillet to coat. Pour in about ¼-cupfuls of batter (do not overcrowd pan). Cook until edges look dry and bubbles form on top, about 2 minutes (reduce heat to low if browning too quickly).

5. Finish pancakes & serve

Flip pancakes and cook 1–2 minutes more. Transfer to plates; repeat with remaining batter, adding more oil as needed.

Serve pancakes with bacon and remaining maple syrup drizzled over top. Sprinkle with granola and top with a pat of butter, if desired. Enjoy!

6. Sweeten the deal!

Sprinkle the pancakes with whatever fruit you have on hand, like bananas, apples, or your favorite berries.
