1. Cook rice

Rinse and drain black beans.

In a medium saucepan, combine rice, 1 ¼ cups water, and ½ teaspoon salt. Bring to a boil, then reduce heat to low. Cover and cook until rice is tender and water is absorbed, about 17 minutes.

Remove from heat, place black beans over rice, and keep covered until ready to serve.

4. Finish chicken

Reduce skillet heat to medium-low, then add taco seasoning, cilantro stems, half of the salsa, and ¼ cup water; simmer until saucy, about 1 minute.

Remove skillet from heat, add ½ teaspoon vinegar and a pinch of sugar. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

2. Prep ingredients

Halve poblano pepper, discard stem and seeds, then cut crosswise into ¼-inch wide strips. Halve lettuce lengthwise, then cut crosswise into thin ribbons; discard stem ends.

Pick cilantro leaves from stems; thinly slice stems, keeping leaves whole.

5. Make crema

In a small bowl, mix to combine sour cream and 1 tablespoon water. Stir in 1 tablespoon water, if needed to thin. Season crema to taste with salt and pepper.

3. Cook peppers & chicken

Heat 2 tablespoons oil in a medium skillet over medium-high. Add poblanos and cook, stirring occasionally, until crisp-tender, 4-6 minutes. Add chicken and cook, breaking up into small pieces, until chicken is browned and heated through, 3-4 minutes.

6. Finish & serve

Fluff rice and mix in black beans; season to taste with salt and pepper.

Divide rice and beans between bowls. Top with chicken, poblanos, cheese, and lettuce. Dollop with remaining salsa and drizzle with crema. Garnish with cilantro leaves and a few grinds of black pepper. Enjoy!
