1. Start fries

Heat oven to 450°F with racks in the upper and lower thirds. Finely grate Parmesan, if necessary.

Scrub potatoes, pat dry, and cut lengthwise into ½-inch thick wedges. On a rimmed baking sheet, toss potatoes with 2 tablespoons oil and a generous pinch each of salt and pepper.

Roast on lower oven rack until golden and tender, 20–25 minutes (no need to flip).

4. Finish fries

Remove potatoes from oven, flip, and sprinkle with Parmesan. Roast on upper oven rack until potatoes and cheese are well-browned and crisp, 6–10 minutes.

2. Shape burger patties

Meanwhile, in a medium bowl, gently knead to combine ground beef and 2 teaspoons Italian seasoning.

Divide beef mixture into 2 portions, then flatten into 2 (5-inch) patties. Evenly divide fontina and press into the center of each. Press edges of meat over cheese to make 2 (4-inch) flat patties, covering cheese completely. Season all over with salt and pepper.

5. Serve

Serve fontina-stuffed burgers on toasted buns with Parmesan fries alongside. Pass ketchup at the table for dipping, if desired. Enjoy!

3. Cook burgers & toast buns

Once potatoes have cooked 20 minutes, heat 2 teaspoons oil in a medium skillet over medium-high. Add burgers and cook until browned and medium-rare, 2–3 minutes per side (or longer for desired doneness).

Split buns and toast, cut sides down, directly on upper oven rack, about 2 minutes (watch closely as ovens vary).

6. Make it saucy!

Feeling fancy? Swap ketchup for a sun-dried tomato aioli that delivers all that delizioso in minutes. In a small bowl, stir together mayonnaise, finely chopped sun-dried tomatoes and garlic, fresh herbs (we like basil and parsley), and a pinch each of salt and pepper. Alternatively, mix in a blender or food processor until smooth. Transfer to a bowl and refrigerate until ready to use. Prego!
