

Fast! Chicken Curry Mee Goreng

with Bok Choy

ca. 20min

2 Servings

A popular Malaysian street food, Mee Goreng features stir-fried noodles in a vibrant sweet and spicy sauce. Lean chicken breast strips and delicate egg ribbons add healthy protein to our version, which cooks up in a flash! We stir-fry the al dente noodles with baby bok choy, scallions, and our special homemade sauce until the flavors meld—and before you know it, dinner is served!

1. Cook noodles

Bring a large saucepan of water to a boil.

Gently pull ramen noodles apart and add to saucepan. Cook, stirring to prevent clumping, until al dente, about 2 minutes. Drain, then rinse with cold water.

Finely chop half of the fresno chile.

2. Prep ingredients

In a small bowl, stir together stir-fry sauce, curry powder, 3 tablespoons ketchup, 1 tablespoon brown sugar, and 2 tablespoons water.

Trim bok choy; cut into 1-inch pieces, keeping dark greens separate. Trim scallions; cut into 1-inch pieces, keeping dark greens separate. Pat chicken dry.

3. Cook eggs

In a small bowl, whisk together 2 large eggs with a pinch each of salt and pepper.

In a medium nonstick skillet, heat 2 teaspoons oil over medium-high. Add eggs; swirl to coat skillet. Cook until eggs are set, 1-2 minutes. Slide onto cutting board and cut into ¼-inch ribbons.

4. Cook chicken & vegetables

Heat 2 teaspoons oil in same skillet over high. Add chicken in a single layer and cook, undisturbed, until browned on the bottom and nearly cooked through, 3 minutes. Add light bok choy greens, scallion whites and light greens, and chopped fresno. Stir and cook until chicken is cooked through and bok choy is crisp-tender, 2 minutes more. Season with salt and pepper.

5. Stir-fry noodles

Add noodles and stir-fry sauce mixture. Cook, stirring and tossing, until sauce coats noodles, 2-3 minutes. Add dark bok choy greens, dark scallion greens and egg ribbons; mix until greens are wilted.

6. Serve

Divide chicken curry mee goreng with bok choy between serving bowls. Enjoy!
