

MARLEY SPOON

Family Friendly! Fried Chicken

with Coleslaw, Biscuits, & Hot Honey

1h

2 Servings

It's always time for crispy, craggly edged fried chicken. The trick is working the chicken in stages. First, we marinate chicken breast and thigh pieces in yogurt to tenderize it. Then, we mix cornstarch, flour, and Cajun seasoning with a bit of that same yogurt to introduce those irresistible crunchy bits on the crust. Finally, the chicken is dredged and fried until golden brown—delicious! (2p serves 4; 4p serves 8)

4. Bread chicken

Brush baked biscuits with remaining melted butter. Set aside until ready to serve.

In a large paper bag, combine flour, cornstarch, Cajun seasoning (use half for less spiciness), and 2 tablespoons marinade from chicken. Close bag and shake well until evenly combined and craggy bits form throughout. Lift chicken from marinade and add to bag. Close bag and shake well to coat.

2. Make coleslaw

Preheat oven to 425°F with a rack in the upper third.

In a large bowl, whisk together mayonnaise, sour cream, mustard, and 1 tablespoon each of vinegar and sugar. Add cabbage blend to bowl with dressing and mix; season to taste with salt and pepper. Refrigerate until ready to serve.

In a large Dutch oven or heavy skillet, heat 4 cups oil over medium-high heat to 400°F. Working 1 piece at a time, lift chicken from seasoned flour and add to oil in a single layer; discard bag. Adjust heat to maintain a temperature of 300–325°F. Fry chicken, turning once, until golden brown (internal temperature should register 160°F), 4–5 minutes per side.

3. Make biscuits

In a large bowl, stir together biscuit mix and ½ cup water until just combined. Transfer dough to a parchment-lined rimmed baking sheet; pat into a 1-inch thick square.
