1. CHICKEN VARIATION

Preheat oven to 450°F with a rack in the center. Trim ends from carrots, then quarter lengthwise.

Pat chicken dry, then season all over with salt and pepper. Heat ½ tablespoon oil in a medium skillet over medium-high. Add chicken and cook, turning, until golden-brown all over, about 4 minutes. Remove from heat and set aside until step 3.

2. Roast carrots

While chicken sears, on a rimmed baking sheet, toss carrots with 1 teaspoon garam masala, 1½ tablespoons oil, and a pinch each of salt and pepper. Roast on center oven rack until tender, tossing halfway through, about 15 minutes.

3. Roast chicken

Once carrots have roasted for 15 minutes, transfer seared chicken from skillet to same baking sheet. Continue to roast on center oven rack until chicken is cooked through and carrots are browned and tender, 6–10 minutes. Transfer chicken to a cutting board to rest. Set baking sheet with carrots aside until ready to serve.

4. Cook apricot pan sauce

While chicken and carrots finish cooking, coarsely chop cilantro leaves and stems. In same skillet, stir to combine apricot preserves, broth concentrate, 1½ teaspoons vinegar, and ½ cup water; bring to a rapid simmer over medium-high, scraping up any browned bits from the bottom of skillet, and cook until sauce is reduced to about ¼ cup, about 3 minutes.

5. Finish & serve

To skillet with apricot sauce, add 2 tablespoons butter and any resting chicken juices; swirl until butter is melted. Stir in half of the cilantro; season to taste with salt and pepper. Thinly slice chicken, if desired.

Serve roasted chicken with spiced carrots alongside. Spoon apricot pan sauce over top and garnish with remaining cilantro. Enjoy!

6. Carbo load!

Soak up all that sauce with a quick rice pilaf! Serve the sliced chicken over top, then drizzle with sauce, and dig in for a major home run.
