1. Prep ingredients

Bring a medium saucepan of salted water to a boil (If it boils before you're ready to cook orzo in step 5, cover with a lid and reduce heat slightly).

Scrub carrots; halve lengthwise and thinly slice into half moons. Finely chop 2 teaspoons garlic. Trim scallions, then thinly slice.

2. TURKEY VARIATION

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a large skillet over medium-high. Add turkey and season with salt and pepper. Cook, breaking up into large pieces, until well browned, 3–5 minutes (it won't be cooked through). Drain all but 1 tablespoon fat, if necessary.

3. Add veggies & aromatics

Add baharat, carrots, chopped garlic, all but 2 tablespoons of the scallions, and a pinch each of salt and pepper. Cook over medium heat, stirring, until veggies are softened and turkey is cooked through, 2–3 minutes.

4. Simmer turkey ragù

Add tomato sauce and 1 cup water. Bring to a simmer. Cook over medium-high heat, stirring occasionally, until sauce is thickened and carrots are tender, 8–10 minutes. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

5. Cook orzo & serve

Return salted water in saucepan to a boil, if necessary. Add orzo; cook, stirring occasionally to prevent sticking, until al dente, 8–9 minutes. Drain and return orzo to saucepan off heat; toss with 2 tablespoons butter. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

Serve turkey ragù over orzo sprinkled with remaining scallions. Enjoy!

6. Top it off!

Serve this hearty dish topped with a quick homemade mint yogurt for a cool finish. Combine plain yogurt, fresh chopped mint, a splash of lemon juice, and even golden raisins if you're feeling adventurous.
