

Beef Tenderloin with Parsnip-Potato Mash

Shallot Pan Sauce & Roasted Brussels

30-40min

2 Servings

We love sneaking in veggies where you'd least expect it, and this parsnip-potato mash is one of our best tricks. Rosemary boils with the root vegetables to impart a subtle earthiness before mashing it all up into buttery bliss. Roasted Brussels sprouts bring a hearty crunch to complement the mash alongside a tender seared beef tenderloin. We top it all off with an irresistibly savory shallot pan sauce.

1. Cook potato and parsnip

Preheat oven to 450°F with a rack in the center.

Peel potato and parsnips and cut into 1-inch pieces. Place into a medium saucepan with half of the rosemary sprigs; add enough salted water to cover by 1 inch. Bring to a boil; reduce heat to medium-low and simmer until very tender when pierced with a fork, 15-20 minutes. Reserve ½ cup cooking water and drain.

4. Cook steak

Peel and thinly slice shallot. Pat steak dry, then season all over with salt and pepper.

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a medium skillet over medium-high. Add beef tenderloin and cook until lightly charred and medium-rare, 2-3 minutes per side. Transfer to a cutting board to rest.

2. Finish mash

Remove rosemary stems and return potatoes and parsnips to saucepan, off heat. Add 2 tablespoons butter and ¼ cup reserved cooking water. Mash with a potato masher or fork. Add more water if needed to reach desired consistency. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Cover to keep warm until ready to serve.

5. Make pan sauce

Add shallot to same skillet over medium-high and cook until softened, 1-2 minutes. Add broth concentrate and ½ cup water, scraping up any browned bits with a wooden spoon. Simmer until liquid is reduced and slightly thickened, about 2 minutes. Off heat, whisk in 1 tablespoon butter.

3. Roast Brussels sprouts

Trim and halve Brussels sprouts (quarter if large). Toss with 2 tablespoons oil on a rimmed baking sheet and season with salt and pepper. Roast, stirring halfway through, until sprouts are tender and leaves are browned and crispy, 20-25 minutes.

6. Finish & serve

Slice beef tenderloin and serve over parsnip and potato mash with Brussels sprouts alongside and shallot pan sauce over top. Enjoy!
