

Fast! Pork Bánh Mì Tacos

with Spicy Mayo & Mint

20-30min

2 Servings

Bánh mì are Vietnamese sandwiches characterized by fresh or pickled veggies, herbs (like mint or cilantro), and pork. This recipe is our twist on that tradition, using flour tortillas to take tacos to a unique place. The vibrant result is a bánh mì-taco mash-up that is just as fun and flavorful as it sounds. Feel free to leave the hot sauce out of the mayo for delicate taste buds!

1. Marinate pork strips

In a large bowl or shallow baking dish, combine all of the tamari and honey, stirring until honey dissolves. Add pork strips to the marinade and turn to coat. Set aside to marinate until step 5.

2. Prep vegetables

Halve cucumber lengthwise, then thinly slice into half moons. Scrub carrot, then slice on an angle as thinly as possible. Place in a large heatproof bowl. Pick mint leaves from stems and add leaves to bowl; discard stems.

3. Pickle veggies

Heat rice vinegar in a small saucepan until boiling. Remove from heat and add 1 tablespoon sugar and 1 teaspoon salt, stirring to dissolve. Pour over vegetables and toss to combine. Set aside until ready to serve.

In a small bowl, whisk together mayonnaise and 1 tablespoon Sriracha (or less, depending on your heat preference).

4. Cook pork

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a medium skillet over medium-high. Remove pork from marinade, pat dry, and add to skillet. Cook, without stirring, until well browned on one side, about 3 minutes. Stir and continue to cook until pork is cooked through, about 2 minutes more.

5. Warm tortillas

Wrap tortillas in a damp paper towel; microwave in 30-second increments until warmed through. Spread some of the spicy mayo on each tortilla and top with pork and vegetables.

6. Serve

Enjoy!
