1. Prep ingredients

Preheat oven to 450°F with a rack in the upper third. Line a rimmed baking sheet with foil and lightly grease with oil.

Halve and thinly slice onion, then finely chop ¼ cup.

Cut broccoli into florets, if necessary.

2. Make meatloaves

Transfer chicken sausage to a medium bowl. Add chopped onions, half of the panko, 1 large egg, ½ teaspoon salt, and a few grinds of pepper; knead to combine. Divide into 2 (4x6-inch) ovals. Transfer to one half of prepared baking sheet. Spoon all but ¼ cup marinara evenly over top.

Bake on upper oven rack for 15 minutes.

3. Make Parmesan breadcrumbs

Meanwhile, finely grate Parmesan, if necessary. Transfer to a small bowl along with remaining panko, 1 tablespoon melted butter, and a pinch each of salt and pepper.

4. Add cheese & veggies

When meatloaves have cooked 15 minutes, remove from oven. Sprinkle fontina and Parmesan breadcrumbs over top.

Transfer broccoli and sliced onions to open half of baking sheet. Drizzle with 2 tablespoons oil; season with salt and pepper. Bake until meatloaves are cooked through to 165°F internally and broccoli is tender and crisp, 7–10 minutes.

5. Heat marinara & serve

Microwave remaining marinara sauce with a damp paper towel over top until warmed through, 1–2 minutes.

Serve chicken parm meatloaves and broccoli with remaining marinara sauce alongside for dipping. Enjoy!

6. Take it to the next level

Serve the meatloaf with some freshly chopped parsley or basil over top.
