1. Prep dough

Preheat oven to 500°F with a rack in the lowest position. Spray a 9x12-inch rimmed baking sheet or baking dish with nonstick spray; drizzle in 2 tablespoons oil.

Transfer dough to prepared pan; turn to coat in oil. Spread dough into a rectangular shape that fills up most of baking sheet (it will not completely fill pan). Cover and rest for 30 minutes.

2. Stretch dough

Continue stretching dough to fill up remainder of baking sheet. Stretch dough into the corners of pan by pressing out from the center, lifting each corner, and stretching it beyond the edge of the pan (dough should spring back to fill corners). Cover and rest until dough is slightly puffed, about 30 minutes.

3. Prep ingredients

Meanwhile, cut bacon into ½-inch thick pieces. Cut pineapple into ½-inch pieces.

Thinly slice half of the onion (save rest for own use). Cut tomatoes in half.

Halve lettuce lengthwise, then cut crosswise into ¾-inch pieces, discarding stem.

4. Top pizza

In a large bowl, combine lettuce, tomatoes, and half of the sliced onion; refrigerate until ready to serve.

Spread marinara sauce over dough, going right up to edges of pan. Sprinkle cheese over top, going right up to edges. Distribute bacon, pineapple, and remaining sliced onion evenly over pizza.

5. Bake & serve

Bake pizza on bottom rack until cheese is bubbling and bottom of pizza is deeply browned (check by lifting with a thin spatula), 15–20 minutes.

Toss salad with vinaigrette; season to taste with salt and pepper. Use a stiff metal spatula to release pizza from sides of pan. Transfer pizza to a cutting board; cut into slices. Enjoy!

6. Bring the heat!

If you're like us and love a little spice, sprinkle some red pepper flakes over your pizza for some kick!
