Miso Chicken & Rice Soup with Spinach & Frizzled Ginger

20-30min

2 Servings

This ain't your grandma's chicken soup. Unless your grandma also had this recipe idea, in which case, we guess it is your grandma's chicken soup! We took a classic childhood favorite and kicked it up with miso, spinach, and a finishing touch of fried ginger and garlic. Chicken soup for the soul? More like chicken soup for the taste buds. We've got you covered!

1. Prep ingredients

Thinly slice 1 large garlic clove and finely chop 1 teaspoon garlic; keep separate.

Peel and finely chop 2 tablespoons ginger. Thinly slice remaining ginger, then stack and cut into thin matchsticks; keep separate.

Pat chicken dry; season all over with salt and pepper.

2. Sear chicken

Heat 1 tablespoon oil in a medium pot over medium-high. Add chicken and cook, stirring, until golden-brown and just cooked through, 3–4 minutes. Transfer chicken to a plate until step 5.

3. Simmer soup

To same pot, add chopped garlic and ginger; cook, stirring, until fragrant, about 30 seconds. Add all of the broth concentrate, 5 cups water, and ½ teaspoon salt. Cover and bring to a boil. Add rice and cover; simmer over medium-low heat, stirring occasionally to keep rice from sticking, until tender, 10–12 minutes.

4. Make frizzled ginger

While rice cooks, in a small skillet over medium, heat 2 tablespoons oil and sliced garlic and ginger; cook, stirring, until golden, about 3 minutes. Transfer to a small heatproof bowl.

5. Finish soup & serve

When chicken is cool enough to handle, shred or cut into bite-sized pieces. Add chicken and any resting juices to pot; simmer, about 1 minute. Remove from heat and stir in spinach and miso. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

Serve miso chicken and rice soup topped with frizzled ginger and garlic. Enjoy!

6. Did you know?

Although reducing food waste is a top priority, sometimes in spite of best efforts, we end up with leftovers in our test kitchen and packing facilities. When that happens, we still make sure it doesn't go to waste. One way of ensuring all of our nutritious food ends up on a table is by donating to local charities like Table to Table and Grace Place.
