1. Prep ingredients

Bring a medium pot of salted water to a boil.

Cut bacon into ¼-inch pieces. Finely chop half of the onion (save rest for own use). Finely chop 1 large garlic clove. Pick parsley leaves from stems and finely chop; discard stems.

Finely grate ¾ of the Parmesan.

2

2. Begin sauce

Place bacon, onions, and 1 tablespoon oil in a large skillet and set over medium-high heat. Cook, stirring frequently, until bacon is golden brown and crisp and onions are softened, 7-10 minutes, lowering heat as necessary if onions are browning before bacon is cooked. Add garlic and crushed red pepper; cook until fragrant, about 1 minute.

3

3. Simmer sauce

Add marinara sauce and ¼ cup water to skillet. Bring sauce to a simmer, then cook on medium-low heat, stirring occasionally, until slightly thickened and flavors have melded, about 10 minutes. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

4

4. Cook pasta

Halfway through cooking sauce, add pasta to boiling water and cook, stirring occasionally, until just shy of al dente, 7-8 minutes. Reserve 1 cup cooking water, then drain pasta.

Add pasta and ½ cup cooking water to sauce. Cook over high heat, stirring and tossing rapidly, until pasta is al dente and sauce has thickened and begins to coat noodles, 1-2 minutes.

5

5. Finish

Remove pasta from heat and add grated Parmesan and parsley; stir and toss rapidly to incorporate. Thin sauce with remaining cooking water, 1 tablespoon at a time, if desired. Season with salt and pepper.

6. Serve

Divide pasta between serving bowls. Grate remaining Parmesan over top and drizzle with oil, if desired. Serve immediately. Enjoy!
